Corporatism is a political ideology which advocates the organization of society by corporate groups, such as agricultural, labour, military, scientific, or guild associations on the basis of their common interests. The idea is that when each group performs its designated function, society will function harmoniously - like a human body (corpus) from which its name derives.

6 The elimination of Bos indicus cattle from a breeding program in the southern United States is not practical, since it would eliminate the desirable breed effects of heterosis and heat resistance. However, to reduce the possibility of less tender meat, Bos indicus breeding should not exceed three-eighths of the animal's genetic composition. ...

It's natural for companies and their investors to be happy, even complacent, when their earnings per share (EPS) and share prices rise. A falling share price may not be a sign of poor performance, however: The Home Depot's fell from 1999 to 2003, yet the company created more value than every North American retailer except Wal-Mart Stores by continuing to grow and improve its return on capital.
