In 1995, Musk and his brother, Kimbal, started Zip2, a web software company, with money raised from a small group of angel investors. The company developed and marketed an Internet city guide for the newspaper publishing industry. Musk obtained contracts with The New York Times and the Chicago Tribune and persuaded the board of directors to abandon plans for a merger with CitySearch.

I recently passed though Wilcannia and found the boarded up houses and shops to be a beautiful sight. The drunken mob gathered around the service station was also a treat, especially the pregnant girl that looked about 14 who was also clearly pissed. Leaving town I saw a burnt car which was pretty much the highlight of Wilcannia.
