Spatial ecology studies the ultimate distributional or spatial unit occupied by a species. In a particular habitat shared by several species, each of the species is usually confined to its own microhabitat or spatial niche because two species in the same general territory cannot usually occupy the same ecological niche for any significant length of time.

A place cell is a kind of pyramidal neuron within the hippocampus that becomes active when an animal enters a particular place in its environment; this place is known as the place field. A given place cell will have only one, or a few, place fields in a typical small laboratory environment, but more in a larger region. There is no apparent topography to the pattern of place fields, unlike other ...

1. Introduction. The control of parasitic organisms is a major concern in marine aquaculture. In particular, sea lice (Lepeophtheirus salmonis and Caligus spp.) cause substantial economic losses on salmon farms (Costello, 2009). Due to their economic importance, control of sea lice on salmon farms has been named one of the top priorities in aquaculture research by both scientists and ...

x Stereotactic body radiation therapy (SBRT) is increasingly being utilized in the treatment of localized prostate cancer. We performed a systematic review and meta-analysis of over 6,000 men treated with prostate SBRT on prospective studies, assessing biochemical disease control, patient reported quality of life (QOL), and acute and late treatment related toxicity.

We propose an oscillatory model that is theoretically parsimonious, empirically efficient and biologically plausible. Building on Hollerbach's (Biol Cybern 39:139-156, 1981) model, our Parsimonious Oscillatory Model of Handwriting (POMH)
