The problem this project is focusing on is the role of the pastor in Southern Baptist Churches based on the prevailing view of the role of the pastor versus the Biblical view of the role of the pastor. While Southern Baptist Churches have always held a high view of the autonomy of the local church and therefore have had much diversity when it

Every portfolio (Local Preachers and Worship Leaders) now contains just four services you have been involved in leading. Many forms have been eliminated, and others revised, to make the paperwork simpler. There is a new Reflection on Worship Attended; The process for final assessment of portfolios by tutors has been simplified.

Local Preachers in British Methodism, together with their colleagues in the ordained ministry (presbyters and deacons), are members of the Preachers' Meeting of the Circuit in which their membership is held. The Local Preachers' Meeting used to meet quarterly, though in many Circuits it is now less often.
