The term victory (from Latin victoria) originally applied to warfare, and denotes success achieved in personal combat, after military operations in general or, by extension, in any competition. Success in a military campaign is considered [by whom?] a strategic victory, while the success in a military engagement is a tactical victory.

In a sport or game, sudden death (also sudden-death overtime or a sudden-death round) is a form of competition where play ends as soon as one competitor is ahead of the others, with that competitor becoming the winner. Sudden death is typically used as a tiebreaker when a contest is tied at the end of regulation (normal) playing time or the completion of the normal playing task.

Achieving victory over school violence is fundamental to safeguarding the learning environment for youth. All students have the right to develop in an educational atmosphere where they feel safe and protected. Research has shown that a holistic approach to preventing school violence involving teachers, administrators, parents, community members and students can reduce risk factors.
